

OCEA VOTER GUIDE

TUESDAY, NOV. 6, 2018

DOUG CHAFFEE FOR COUNTY SUPERVISOR, DISTRICT 4

Doug Chaffee is endorsed by OCEA because he stands with us. Doug supports public service jobs, worker rights and a strong middle class. He was elected to the Fullerton City Council in 2012 and currently serves as Mayor. Doug has brought his problem solving skills to the issues facing his community. He is also endorsed by the Orange County Professional Firefighters and the Orange County Attorneys Association.

ASHLEIGH AITKEN FOR MAYOR OF ANAHEIM

Ashleigh Aitken knows how to fight! A former Federal Prosecutor and current Consumer Rights Attorney, Ashleigh has always fought for what is right. She is running for Mayor of Anaheim to bring local government back to the people it serves. The Anaheim Municipal Employees Association (AMEA), the largest union of city workers has endorsed Ashleigh because she will fight for fairness for residents, support good jobs, quality services and respect for city workers.

KATRINA FOLEY FOR MAYOR OF COSTA MESA

Councilwoman Katrina Foley has been a warrior for Costa Mesa workers. She stood with City workers against unfair and illegal layoffs and has fought to bring back jobs for city workers. She has stood with union members every election cycle and has never backed down from standing up for fairness for working people. Katrina is supported by the Costa Mesa City Employees Association (CMCEA) and the Costa Mesa Firefighters Association.

DON BARNES FOR ORANGE COUNTY SHERIFF

Undersheriff Barnes has earned the support of members in the Sheriff's Department because he works collaboratively with OCEA-represented workers. He has served the Department for 30-years and has all the qualifications needed to lead one of the largest law enforcement agencies in the state.

ED HERNANDEZ FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Ed Hernandez has a 100 percent voting record from the California Labor Federation while serving in the California Senate, meaning he has demonstrated his commitment to working families, so we are standing with Ed! The state's Lt. Governor sits on several boards and commissions, including the CalPERS board, which sets policy on public employee pensions. We need a champion like Ed on the board to support our retirement security.

TONY THURMOND FOR STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Billionaires are trying to buy our local schools and outsource public education jobs. Tony Thurmond is the candidate endorsed by teachers and classified school workers because he understands the importance of strong local public schools that serve everyone. Tony is endorsed by OCEA as well as the California Labor Federation. Unions are standing with Tony Thurmond because he will stand up to the billionaires trying to outsource our public schools and profit off the backs of our kids.

SHARON QUIRK-SILVA FOR STATE ASSEMBLY DISTRICT 65

We need leaders like Sharon Quirk-Silva in the State Legislature where she's been a powerful advocate for working families during her two terms from 2012-2014 and 2016-present. She recently hosted talks in Sacramento with OCEA Court Bargaining Team members and is a strong voice for more resources for Orange County's underfunded courts. Sharon Quirk-Silva is endorsed by the California Labor Federation, virtually all of the education unions, and public safety.

TOM UMBERG FOR STATE SENATE DISTRICT 34

Retired U.S. Army Colonel Tom Umberg is OCEA's choice for State Senator because he has demonstrated support for workers, retirement security and fairness on the job. Tom is also a veteran of the State Assembly and has always championed fairness for working families. He also took on drug cartels as a federal prosecutor and Deputy Drug Czar. Tom is endorsed by the California Labor Federation, Veterans organizations and community leaders from all over California.

LOURDES CRUZ FOR YORBA LINDA CITY COUNCIL

Lourdes Cruz is a long-time resident of the City of Yorba Linda, as well as an OCEA Member! As a veteran Social Worker, Lourdes knows what local government service is all about bringing integrity, accountability and transparency to her work as a community outreach specialist and a therapeutic behavioral services coach that helped suicidal children and teens. Lourdes is active in her local Rotary Club, the Richard Nixon Library and also finds time to serve her co-workers as an OCEA Steward!
